SEEKS HUSBAND IN MALE ATTIRE

MRS. DOROTHY CLARKE IN MALE ATTIRE. She is the woman who was arrested for passing herself off as a man.

Mrs. Dorothy Clarke has reached New York after a trip from Alaska and all over the United States in search of her husband. In itself this fact may not be unusual, but Mrs. Clarke may claim distinction by virtue of the fact that she has covered this great territory while disguised as a young man and her sex was never guessed until she landed on Broadway.

This woman is 33 years old, yet, in her boy's suit, looks like a nattily attired youth of 20. She tells a story of wandering which would make a great novel or a unique play. Claiming wealthy relatives in San Francisco, she refuses to apply to them, but insists on visiting all sorts of places in every city she visits. In the hope of finding her errand spouse. So long as she does not wear male clothing the police have no charge against her and she will probably be permitted to continue her search unmolested.

PINKHAM GOT "COLD FEET"

ens, and they ought not to ask the same privileges that are accorded to citizen physicians. It is a fact that they were asked to serve this Board for the benefit of their countrymen. They were promised pay for such services and to ask the Board for a letter of thanks for their services, besides, is altogether too much.

Your countrymen are getting altogether too cocky, and are getting to be considered a nuisance everywhere they go because of the trouble they cause. In any white men's country they ought to behave themselves and be satisfied with the privileges which may be accorded them, and not ask the same rights and privileges enjoyed by the citizen. If they ask the same rights and privileges it will be the source of serious trouble between the two countries.

It is because of your countrymen's aggressive demand of all the rights and privileges of citizens in the countries where they may happen to be, and in addition claim privileges because of their race or numbers, that they are becoming disliked in every country where they have gone.

However, in the present matter I will pay whatever is due to them for their services, and I wish you would inform the Japanese doctors to present their bill to the Board direct.

L. E. PINKHAM.

President, Board of Health.

Although President Pinkham does not care to talk on the matter, the essential facts of the trouble have been known. When the plague situation became serious early in April at Aiea, Pinkham thought that more doctors were needed to handle the trouble, as there was only one doctor looking after the situation besides the resident doctor at Aiea. He accordingly requested three well known Japanese doctors to go down and co-operate with the Honolulu doctor who had assumed charge of the work. This was agreed to and the four doctors made frequent trips, working harmoniously under the direction of the white physician in charge.

When the trouble was paid, they presented their bill for 41 visits at $25 per visit, or a total of $1025. Pinkham demurred at this, and the matter finally was put up to the Consul, with the above stated result.

The Japanese doctors were finally paid at the rate of $4 per visit, this being, Pinkham told them, all that the white doctor had been paid. The Japanese investigated this and were advised by their American confreres that owing to the position he held on the Board of Health, he had donated his services, because the reputation of the Board was at stake. That he had declined to put in any bill at all for his

INSPECTION WILL BE MORE RIGID

DR. NORGAAARD'S PLAN ADOPTED BY BOARD—STRICT EXAMINATION OF ALL LIVE STOCK.

At a meeting of the Commissioners of the Board of Forestry and Agriculture held yesterday afternoon at the government nursery, plans were taken up and a general set of rules formulated which will make it necessary for every animal coming in the Territory to be examined before it is allowed to land.

It is the plan of the board to have a regular system of veterinary inspectors and regular inspections on the islands of Hawaii, Maui, Kauai and Oahu, to prevent the spread of disease among the cattle already on the islands as well as for cattle coming in. If the system is finally decided upon, it will make it possible to import live stock direct to the islands without first being subjected to an examination here in Honolulu.

As a part of the plan for regular inspection of live stock on the other islands, but effective whether the plan is carried out or not, it will be impossible to import live stock from the mainland without the shipper having first received a certificate from a veterinarian employed by the United States Bureau of Animal Industry certifying that they are in good health, and where it is possible to have them subjected to the mallein or tuberculin test.

Under Act 112 of the Session Laws of 1907, regulations of the Board of Commissioners of Agriculture and Forestry have the force of law, and their violation may be punished by fine not exceeding $500.

The reasons for the same are set forth in Dr. Norgaard's report which is as follows:

For the information of all concerned in the interstate movement of live stock and more particularly in the transportation and importation of live stock from the mainland to the Territory of Hawaii, the following directions are given:

Under recent date the Federal Bureau of Animal Industry granted to the Territory of Hawaii the privilege of having livestock intended for shipment to this place inspected and tested by officers of the said bureau. This inspection and testing with mallein or tuberculin will be made either at the ranch where the animals are to be purchased, and will be made free of charge as far as the services and the mallein and tuberculin are concerned. All other expenses, including traveling expenses and subsistence of the inspector to and from the place where the test is to be made, must be paid by the party ordering the test. The Federal inspectors will also inspect each vessel carrying livestock to this Territory and see to it that the animals are installed on board in such a manner as to insure their safe and humane transportation.

Any party desiring to purchase on the mainland of the United States horse stock or cattle for shipment to this Territory, or any party having purchased such animals, should apply to Dr. George S. Baker, Inspector in Charge, Bureau of Animal Industry, 407-8 Postoffice building, San Francisco, California, for inspection and testing. In case the animals are located at a distance from San Francisco, Dr. Baker will send one of his inspectors to make the test or will designate the nearest inspector to whom to apply for testing. Upon arrival of the stock in San Francisco, Dr. Baker should be notified and the test certificates submitted for his approval, unless they have been forwarded to him direct. He should also be informed as to the vessel on which the animals are to be shipped and the date and time of sailing.

The same directions apply as far as inspection is concerned to sheep and swine intended for importation.

The inspector in charge at Portland, Oregon, is Dr. E. C. Joss, room 402, Custom House, and at Seattle, Washington, Dr. O. B. Hess, care of Frye & Bruhn (Inc.).

In Honolulu the office of the Territorial Veterinarian, Dr. Victor A. Norgaard, is in the building of the Board of Agriculture and Forestry, located in the grounds of the Government Nursery, King and Keolu roads; telephone No. 568. His residence is at 1927 Maikiki street; telephone No. 1064. The Assistant-Territorial Veterinarian, Dr. J. C. Fitzgerald, has the same office address and telephone number, while his residence is at 1278 King street; telephone No. 539. Either of these two officials should be notified whenever a steamer or other vessel expected to bring livestock is sighted. In order that they may be present when the vessel docks.

There were present at the meeting George R. Carter, C. S. Holloway, W. M. Giffard, Paul R. Isenberg, Albert Waterhouse and H. M. von Holt.

STEAMER CHINA ARRIVES EARLY

SAILS AGAIN AT FIVE THIS EVENING—FEW PASSENGERS AND LITTLE FREIGHT IN HER HOLD.

P. M. S. S. China arrived off port from the Orient at 6:45 o'clock this morning and noon after 3 o'clock was alongside the Channel wharf with five cabin passengers, 65 tons of cargo and a lot of immigrants for this port. She sails for San Francisco at 5 o'clock this evening.

The China experienced good steaming weather, but weather not altogether pleasant for her passengers. She was helped along by the winds. Her cargo is very light, one of the smallest she ever brought here from the Orient.

Attorney Francis M. Brooks, well known here, who has for several years been practicing in Shanghai, is among the Honolulu passengers. He will stop over until the coming of the Manuaria, when he will resume his travels to San Francisco to return later to the Orient. Dr. Edward Armitage is another passenger for this port.

Among the through passengers is Captain Earl Lee Wilken of the German man-of-war Kunst Blumhardt, Germany's largest battleship in the Orient. Mrs. M. L. McComber is in charge of a party of tourists.

GOOD TENNIS PLAYING.

In the final set Tuesday afternoon between George Waterhouse and Tom Gill for the tennis championship of the Y. M. C. A. and the silver cup offered by the Association, Waterhouse defeated the veteran Gill by the score of 8-6. The match was closely contested throughout, and in the last game the score was duce frequently. Waterhouse played a very steady game throughout, and his net playing was the best that has been seen here for a long time.

The Kauai Honey Company, Ltd., had increased its capital to $15,000. This is the second increase since the first of the present year, the first being from $3000 to $6000.
